1. INTRODUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

- 1.1 These Terms and Conditions are a contract between you and Bank of New Zealand. They apply to the use of your Card, including where it is used to access your 24 Hour Banking Accounts, and your Credit Card Account. However, our standard terms and conditions for operating your BNZ bank account and our 24 Hour Banking terms and conditions will continue to apply to the operation of your 24 Hour Banking Accounts.

- 1.3 You should read these Terms and Conditions carefully as they place certain requirements and liabilities on you.

2. YOUR CARD AND ITS USE

2.1 Receiving and signing your Card:

You must sign your Card immediately upon receipt. Your Card must not be used if you have not signed it. Do not send your Card overseas, or have any other person send your Card to you while you are overseas. To have your Card forwarded to another country, please contact us.

2.2 Card and PIN security:

You must not allow others to use your Card, your Card Number or your PIN. Remember to retrieve your Card after you use it. If your Card is lost or stolen you must immediately notify us by calling one of the telephone numbers shown at the end of these Terms and Conditions.

If your Card is lost or stolen overseas you may also advise any Visa Member of the loss and enlist their assistance. Should your card be retained by an ATM, you must report it immediately as a lost Card. If your PIN may have been disclosed you must notify us immediately.

You must use the appropriate emergency numbers and addresses at the end of these Terms and Conditions.

2.3 Lost or stolen, damaged or faulty Cards:

If your Card is lost or stolen, damaged or faulty, we may issue a replacement Card which will operate on your Card Accounts.

2.4 Ownership of Card:

Your Card and Card Number are our property. They may not be copied or reproduced and may be retained by us. You agree to return or destroy your Card when we ask you or if you close the Card Accounts to which it relates. In certain circumstances a Merchant may also be required to retain your Card and you agree to deliver the Card, to the Merchant in such circumstances upon request.

2.5 Agreement to pay:

You agree to pay us the full amount payable in respect of all transactions. Once a transaction is completed it cannot be stopped in the same way as a cheque. If you think a mistake has been made, refer to clause 12 of these Terms and Conditions.

In certain circumstances if you do not receive goods or services you have ordered using your Card, or by reference to your Card Number, then you may be able to obtain a credit for the transaction. If you think this has happened, you should contact us.

2.6 PIN selection:

If you wish to use your Card for ATM, EFTPOS, and/or teller transactions, you may need a PIN. To obtain a PIN, call at any of our branches where you may choose your own PIN. Along with your Card, you will need to take some form of suitable identification like a drivers licence or passport. If you are planning to use your Card overseas, we recommend you obtain a PIN at one of our branches before you go. The PIN selected must be one designed to avoid the chance of anybody guessing the numbers you choose. You must avoid unsuitable PINs such as:

- Birth dates, months or years in any form or combination;
- Sequential numbers (such as 3456) or easily identifiable number combinations (eg 1111);
- Any of the blocks of numbers on your Card;
- Other easily accessible personal figures such as parts of personal telephone numbers, driver licence numbers, licence plate numbers, passport numbers or personal data.

PIN changes may be made at any of our branches.

2.7 Means of protecting a PIN and your responsibility:

You are responsible for keeping your PIN secure, in particular you must:

- Not keep a written record of your PIN;
- Not keep your PIN in a form that can be readily identified as a PIN;
- Not disclose your PIN to any other person (including persons in apparent authority, family members or spouse);
- Not negligently or recklessly disclose your PIN;
- Notify BNZ immediately if you become aware that your PIN has become known to someone else;
- Ensure any other cardholders who are able to access any of your Card Accounts by a PIN keep their PIN secure as set out above.

2.8 Internet Banking and Telephone Banking:

Our Internet Banking and Telephone Banking Terms and Conditions apply when you use 24 Hour Banking or Internet Banking to access your Card Accounts. We may modify, add to or delete any of our Internet Banking and Telephone Banking Terms and Conditions from time to time.

2.9 ATM transaction limits:

In New Zealand, limits on the amount of cash you can withdraw in a calendar day will vary according to the ATM up to a maximum of $2,000. Higher limits do exist on withdrawals made while overseas and may go as high as your credit limit. These transaction limits shall not affect your obligation to pay immediately any amounts which are debited to your Credit Card Account in excess of your credit limit. Limits will apply regardless of whether your Card Account has a debit or credit balance.

2.10 Mail, telephone and remote (e.g. Internet and email) transactions:

You may use your Card to make mail, telephone or remote purchases for goods and services. By doing this you are giving authority to the Merchant to debit the purchase amount to your Credit Card Account. You must still pay the amount of the transaction although you will not necessarily have signed a sales voucher. There are risks involved in providing your Card details and authorising transactions before you receive the goods or services. Before doing so you should consider the security and standing of the relevant Merchant. You may not, under any circumstances, attempt to make a mail, telephone or remote purchase for goods or services if your Card has been cancelled, lost or stolen or you have requested closure of your Credit Card Account.

2.11 Your credit limit:

Your credit limit is the maximum amount which, provided you make the Total Minimum Payment Due by the Last Date for Payment, you may allow to remain outstanding on your Credit Card Account at any time. You may not complete any transactions on your Credit Card Account which will cause you to exceed your credit limit. Your credit limit will be set by us to what we consider is an appropriate limit and we may change it from time to time. If your Credit Card Account is not operated to our satisfaction we may decrease your credit limit. We will advise you in writing prior to any change to your credit limit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may, at our discretion, allow transactions to your Credit Card Account which exceed your credit limit. However, where your credit limit is exceeded, you must pay the overlimit portion of your Credit Card Account balance to us immediately.

2.12 Changing your credit limit:

If you are an Account Owner you can apply to increase your credit limit at any time by:

- Completing a request through our Internet Banking Service or any of our branches; or
- Calling us on 0800 931 932; or
- Other forms of communication approved by us.

We may increase your credit limit – you will be advised of this increase and you can decline any increase you have not applied for. If you are the Account Owner you may apply to decrease your credit limit by contacting us, although Cards may be subject to minimum limits set by Visa.

2.13 Transaction limits at selected Merchants:

We may at any time impose a permanent or temporary limit on the number, types and/or amounts of transactions we authorise on your Credit Card Account at selected Merchants as determined by us from time to time. These limitations will apply regardless of whether your Card Account has a debit or credit balance.

2.14 Cash advances:

You may get a cash advance in New Zealand or overseas by using your Card and PIN at an ATM displaying the Visa logo and/or Plus symbol. Alternatively, you may present your Card at any of our branches or to any Visa Member bank that displays the Visa logo. You will need to have photo identification with you. The Visa Member may set a minimum or maximum on the cash amount available to you either from that Visa Member or from any of their ATMs.

Any portion of a cash advance which takes your Credit Card Account into debit, will incur interest from the day it is made until it has been paid in full. Any available funds in your Credit Card Account will be immediately applied by us to payment of the cash advance and any cash advance fee (see clause 6.4). Cash advances do not earn Reward Points.

2.15 Foreign Currency transactions:

You can use your Card to make purchases, obtain cash advances and receive funds in foreign currencies. All foreign currency purchases, cash advances and returned purchases will be converted to New Zealand dollars as at the date your transaction is processed (and not necessarily the date that you enter into your transaction). They will be converted at a rate of exchange set using a wholesale market rate selected by Visa International Service Association.

We add a Foreign Currency Service Fee calculated as a percentage of the New Zealand dollar value of each foreign currency purchase, cash advance or returned purchase.

The converted amount of your foreign currency transaction and the Foreign Currency Service Fee are both included in the New Zealand dollar amount shown on your statement for each transaction. The rate of exchange shown on the statement is the applicable scheme rate adjusted by us to include our fee.

We are not responsible for any loss or damage you may suffer if, because of occurrences beyond our control, you cannot use your Card overseas. This could include ATM or communications line failure.

The Foreign Currency Service Fee is subject to change. For details about this and other interest, fees and charges associated with use of your Card see our 'Current Charges' flyer or visit www.bnz.co.nz and click through to the Rates and Fees page.

3. BILL PAYMENTS

3.1 Use of your Card for payment of bills:

You may use your Card to effect payment of amounts which you owe to third parties for goods or services ('Bill Payments').

3.2 Processing Bill Payments:

Bill Payments will only be paid if there are sufficient funds in your Credit Card Account at the time the payment is processed. For Bill Payments that are programmed in advance, if there are insufficient funds on the business day the payment is processed, the payment will be reversed one business day after that day and a fee may be charged (see clause 6.7). Bill Payments made from your Credit Card Account before 8.00pm will be processed the next business day and payments made after 8.00pm will be processed two business days later.

3.3 Maximum limit:

The Bank may set maximum transaction limits for the amount of a bill payment. This limit may change from time to time. Should this maximum limit be exceeded we cannot guarantee processing of the payment or accept liability for fees or interest charged by us or any other party.

3.4 Pre-selected bill payees:

Pre-selected bill payees may have pre-arranged with us to accept Card payments. We may elect to treat such Bill Payments as either a purchase or cash advance. Bill Payments treated as purchases may receive Reward Points and an interest free period (if applicable). Bill Payments treated as a cash advance will attract a cash advance fee if the Credit Card Account is in debit immediately following the Bill Payment. Interest will apply immediately if your Credit Card Account is in debit, and they do not earn Reward Points.

If your bill payee is not a pre-selected bill payee then you may still use your Credit Card Account for Bill Payments to that bill payee by setting up that bill payee as a self-selected bill payee.

3.5 Self-selected bill payees:

Bill Payments to self-selected bill payees are treated as a cash advance. They will attract a cash advance fee if the Credit Card Account is in debit immediately following the Bill Payment, and interest will apply immediately if your Credit Card Account is in debit until it is paid in full. Please note self-selected bill payee payments do not earn Reward Points.

4. YOUR CARD ACCOUNTS

4.1 Card access:

Using your Card you can access your Credit Card Account and the 24 Hour Banking Accounts nominated for that purpose.

4.2 Statements:

A record of Credit Card Account transactions will appear on your statements provided by us for your Credit Card Account. Your statements should be kept in a safe place so that you can refer to them if needed.

4.3 Credit interest:

Interest at rates set by us may be paid on credit balances in your Credit Card Account. You will be advised of changes to the interest rate by advertisements in the public notices column of major newspapers or by disclosure on your statement.

If we decide to pay credit interest on your Credit Card Account it will be calculated as set out on the back of your current statement. We may set a minimum credit balance on which interest is payable.

4.4 Joint Accounts:

We may at our discretion allow you to establish and operate a joint Credit Card Account in which case the provisions of clause 4.4 shall apply.

Any one Account Owner of a joint Credit Card Account can operate and instruct us to act in respect of the joint Credit Card Account separately. This means that, without limitation, any one Account Owner can undertake transactions within the credit limit of the Credit Card Account as described in clause 2.11 or apply to change, or agree to/decline a change in, the credit limit of the Credit Card Account in accordance with clause 2.12. We will give any notices in relation to a joint Credit Card Account to the address according to our records. In addition, any notice given to one Account Owner of a joint Credit Card Account is deemed to be sufficient notice to all Account Owners. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by us, each Account Owner of a joint account is liable both individually, and each two or more are liable together, in respect of any amount owing to us on that Credit Card Account. Accordingly, any one or more of the Account Owners may be required to pay all the money that is owed in respect of a joint account.

If a dispute occurs between Account Owners of a joint account, we must be immediately advised and the Account Owners should seek independent legal advice. We may suspend the operation of a joint account until we are satisfied that agreement has been reached between the Account Owners in relation to the Credit Card Account. For the avoidance of doubt, where joint Account Owners are married or living in a defacto relationship, a separation of such joint Account Owners will be treated by us as a "dispute" for which notification to us is required. In the event of a separation of joint Account Owners, the joint account will be suspended but the joint and individual liability for all outstanding debt will remain until repayment of the whole of that debt is received by us.

4.4.1 Closing of a joint Credit Card Account by you:

Your joint Credit Card Account may be closed by any one of you so instructing us.

In such case we will not be liable to the other Account Owner(s) for any consequences arising from the closure. If any Account Owner of a joint Credit Card Account requests removal of their name from that account we will treat that as a request to close that Credit Card Account and section 11 shall apply. However the joint and individual liability for all outstanding debt will remain in relation to the joint Credit Card Account until repayment of the whole of that debt is received by us.

4.4.2 Death of a joint Account Owner:

If any Account Owner of a joint Credit Card Account dies, the remaining Account Owner(s) automatically become the owners of any credit balance in the Credit Card Account and have full authority to operate the Credit Card Account. We will incur no liability for paying or delivering any such credit balance to the surviving Account Owner(s). Any liability an Account Owner of a joint Credit Card Account may have to us will not be extinguished by the death of that Account Owner. We will review the Credit Card Account and credit limit following the death of any Account Owner or a joint Credit Card Account Owner. We may suspend or close the Credit Card Account or change the credit limit.

4.4.3 Deposits:

Where you are a party to a joint Credit Card Account and we receive a deposit (whether by cheque, draft, bill of exchange or other instrument or payment authority) in your favour, we may credit such deposit to your joint Credit Card Account unless instructed in writing to pay it into a separate account in your name.

4.4.4 Suspension or closure of joint Account:

We may suspend the operation of or close a joint Credit Card Account without prior notice if:

- There is any dispute between any of the joint Account Owners and this has not been resolved to our satisfaction;
- One joint Account Owner attempts to withdraw, or notifies us of his or her intention to withdraw, from the joint Credit Card Account;
- We learn that any joint Account Owner has committed an act of bankruptcy or been declared bankrupt or that a petition has been presented to declare any joint Account Owner bankrupt;
- Any Account Owner of a joint Credit Card Account dies;
- Any joint Account Owner purports to assign or dispose of his or her interest in the joint Credit Card Account.

In such case:

- Each joint Account Owner prior to suspension or closure of the Credit Card Account will continue to be jointly and individually liable for any outstanding debt;
- And we will not be liable to any joint Account Owner for any consequences of the suspension or closure of the joint account.

We will not be liable to any joint Account Owner if we do not suspend or close a joint Card Account when we could have done so.

4.5 Additional cardholders:

If you are an Account Owner, we may at our discretion issue additional Cards to a person or persons you nominate. When that person receives and signs his or her Card, it can be used on your Credit Card Account.

As the Account Owner, you will be liable for all transactions arising from the use of the additional Cards as if they were your own. You may cancel any additional Cards by writing to us and confirming which Cards you wish to cancel and destroying such Cards. You will however, continue to be liable for all transactions up to the date the respective Cards are destroyed together with any other transactions authorised by your nominated cardholders.

5. CREDIT CARD ACCOUNT OPERATION

5.1 Verification of identity:

We may from time to time require proof, to our satisfaction, of your identity or the identity of any person authorised to operate your Credit Card Account.

5.2 Instructing us:

Subject to conditions notified by us from time to time, we may at our discretion allow you to give instructions in respect of your Credit Card Account by telephone, facsimile, card or computer or by any other written, electronically communicated or verbal method acceptable to us (each a "facility"). We may require you to provide a written indemnity before making any such facility available to you. Except as otherwise required by law, we may allow the operation of a Credit Card Account of a deceased person if authority was given by this person prior to his or her death.

5.3 Available transactions:

Your Credit Card Account may be operated by deposits, withdrawals, transfers, direct credits, direct debits, automatic payments or any other type of payment authority acceptable to us.

5.4 Authority:

You authorise us to act in accordance with your instructions relating to your Credit Card Account. You acknowledge that, subject to complying with our duty to exercise reasonable care and skill and other obligations under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, we may decline to so act, or delay acting on any instructions, where we consider we have good reason to do so. In particular, we will not be obliged to act in accordance with your instructions where to do so would result in your credit limit being exceeded. In addition, we may, where your Credit Card Account can be accessed by telephone or by electronic means, assume that any telephone or electronic instructions received using your PIN or access number and password are authorised by you.

5.5 Changes to Account:

If your Account Number changes or you change from one type of account with us to another, we may redirect to your new account transactions that would have been credited or debited to your old Account Number, unless you specify otherwise. We will not, however, be liable to you if we do not redirect any transactions when we could have under this clause.

5.6 Set off and combination:

You authorise us, at any time and without notice, to combine any credit balance of one of your Card Accounts with the balance of another of your Card Accounts, so as to treat them as a single balance, and there will be no implied agreement to the contrary. If you owe any money to us that is due but unpaid, whether it is owed alone or with others, you authorise us, without prior notice, to apply any credit balance in any of your Card Accounts, or any other amount we owe to you, towards that unpaid amount. For this purpose, you authorise us to transfer funds from one Card Account to another (including any joint account that you can operate individually), to use funds in one currency to buy another currency and to break any term deposit. We may do this without prior notice, in the order, and as often, as we determine.

5.7 Recording instructions:

You authorise us to record any telephone calls between you and us, and to retain such recordings.

5.8 Ownership of credit balance:

Unless you instruct us otherwise in writing, you acknowledge that you are solely entitled to any credit balance in your Credit Card Account, that it belongs to you and does not belong to any other person, and that no other person has any legal or beneficial interest in it. For avoidance of doubt, this clause 5.8 does not affect our rights of set off and combination set out in clause 5.6.

5.9 Use and return of forms:

Forms encoded by us with a Card Number must not be used to access or operate any other Card Account. Where you would be entitled to the return of any form, we may, at our discretion, provide you with a copy of the actual form.

5.10 Transaction priority:

We may determine the order of priority of your Credit Card Account transactions.

5.11 Liens:

If we receive or hold any property, items or documents for you for any purpose we may, in our discretion, exercise a lien over the property, item or document as security for any amount you owe to us (whether alone or with any other persons) under your Credit Card Account.

5.12 Rights to your Credit Card Account:

You may not assign, mortgage, charge or declare a trust of any rights to your Credit Card Account, including any credit balances, except with our prior written consent.

6. FEES

6.1 Account fee:

Fees may be debited to your Credit Card Account for maintaining it.

6.2 Additional/joint Account fee:

There is no fee for issuing an additional/joint card.

6.3 Card replacement fee:

There is no fee for issuing a replacement card to the Account Owner and additional/joint cardholders.

6.4 Cash advance fee:

If you make a cash advance we may debit a cash advance fee to your Credit Card Account. If your Credit Card Account is in credit and it remains in credit after the cash advance occurs, the cash advance fee will not be charged.

6.5 Manual payment fee:

If you request us to transfer the balance of another BNZ Card to your Credit Card Account we may debit a manual payment processing fee to your Credit Card Account.

6.6 Late payment fee:

If the Total Minimum Payment Due is not received by the Last Date for Payment, we may debit a late payment fee to your Credit Card Account.

6.7 Over limit fee:

If you undertake a transaction in excess of your credit limit we may debit an over limit fee to your Credit Card Account.

6.8 Dishonour fee:

Should any payment (including third party payments) be subsequently dishonoured, we may debit a dishonour fee to your Credit Card Account.

6.9 Foreign Currency Service Fee:

A Foreign Currency Service Fee will be debited to your Credit Card Account each time you use your Card for foreign currency purchases, cash advances and returned purchases. The converted amount of your foreign currency transaction and the Foreign Currency Service Fee are both included in the New Zealand dollar amount and in the rate of exchange shown on your statement for each transaction.

6.10 Agreement to pay:

You agree to pay the above and any other fees and/or charges determined by us for services provided in connection with your Credit Card Account or imposed by government regulation, and further agree that such fees and/or charges and recovery costs may be debited to your Credit Card Account. Current fees are outlined in our 'Current Charges' for your Card, which is available upon request. These fees and charges may be changed from time to time by us.

7. INTEREST CHARGES

7.1 For purchases, fees and charges and interest on those amounts:

We have the discretion as to the granting of any interest free period for your Card. Where an interest free period applies, you will pay no interest on purchases or fees, charges and interest (other than on a cash advance – refer to clause 7.2) if you pay the current balance shown on your statement in full by the Last Date for Payment. However if you pay less than this, interest will be charged as set out on the back of your current statement. On Credit Card Accounts with no interest free period, interest will be charged from the date the transaction is made or the fee, charge or interest is debited until it is paid in full.

7.2 For cash advances and fees, charges and interest on them:

A cash advance is not a purchase and any part of a cash advance (including any applicable cash advance fee or Foreign Currency Service Fee) not fully covered by credit funds, incurs interest from the day the cash advance is made until those amounts are paid in full. Interest on a cash advance incurs interest from the date it is debited until it is paid in full. Purchases of travellers' cheques and/or currency are cash advances, as are certain Bill Payments made using 24 Hour Banking if these are made from your Credit Card Account. These include Bill Payments made to self-selected bill payees, or pre-selected bill payees as determined by us at our discretion. See clause 3.

7.3 Notification of rates:

The current annual debit interest rates, and any interest rate structures, specials or promotions (if applicable) are shown on each statement. These may be changed by us at any time. Any changes will be notified to you on your statement. To cover situations where no statement is being produced (eg new accounts or inoperative nil balance accounts) advice of the changes will also be advertised in the public notices column of major newspapers, and on our website. The new rates and other changes will then be disclosed on the statement recording your next transaction.

8. PAYMENTS

8.1 Minimum payment due:

The Total Minimum Payment Due is recorded on your statement and is the minimum amount you must pay us by the Last Date for Payment. We will advise you on your statement of the Total Minimum Payment Due, however you may elect to pay more than this sum if you wish.

8.2 When payment received:

Your payment will be credited to your Credit Card Account for the purposes of calculating interest as at the date we receive it. Standard processing times mean that a payment may not appear on our records in time for it to be taken into account when deciding whether to approve a transaction. Generally your payment must be received by us two business days prior to your statement closing date if it is to appear on your current statement.

8.3 Allocation of payment:

We are not obliged to act on or verify compliance with an instruction to apply a payment for a specific purpose or subject to any condition and we will not be responsible for applying a payment contrary to any instruction. The way your payments to your Credit Card Account are applied will be determined by us at our discretion. Generally your payments will be applied to fees, charges and interest first and then as set out on the back of your current statement.

If your payment is not sufficient to cover the outstanding fees, charges or interest, this will result in your Credit Card Account having interest charged on those amounts.

8.4 Provisional payments:

Payments, other than notes and coins, will only be provisionally credited to your Credit Card Account. You may not access any such payments before they are cleared. If not cleared, they will be debited to your Credit Card Account and a fee may be charged. Accordingly, the balance of your Credit Card Account may be altered by reversal of any unpaid cheque or other non-cash payment.

8.5 Direct debit facility:

You may have a direct debit facility where we will debit a New Zealand bank account for either your full statement Closing Balance or the Total Minimum Payment Due on the Due Date detailed on your statement. You will need to complete a Direct Debit authority form that can be downloaded from www.bnzcreditcards.co.nz. Alternatively call us on 0800 931 932 and request a form by post.

Once your direct debit is set up, you will receive a statement with a message on the remittance advice stating: "Unless advice to the contrary is received from you by dd/mm/yy (date), the amount of $(dollar amount) will be directly debited from your bank account on dd/mm/yy." Until this time you should continue to pay your account in the normal manner.

If you make a separate manual payment, your direct debit payment will still equal the amount detailed on your statement unless you contact us to amend the direct debit amount by the notice date detailed on your statement.

9. YOUR LIABILITY

9.1 Operation of your Credit Card Account:

You agree:

- Not to use your Card beyond the credit limit applying to your Credit Card Account;
- To pay at least the Total Minimum Payment Due by the Last Date for Payment;
- To advise us of any change to your contact details;
- To notify us immediately if your Card has been lost or stolen or your PIN has or may have become known to someone else;
- To immediately destroy your Card if requested;
- To pay in the manner and at the times requested by us the full amount of all transactions and all costs, charges and interest on your Credit Card Account;
- To advise your bank and any other party to cancel any authorities (eg automatic payments, direct debits) authorising payments to or transactions from your Credit Card Account once it has been closed or withdrawn.

9.2 If you do not pay your Credit Card Account:

- Any legal fees (on a solicitor/client basis), debt collection costs or other costs which we may incur in recovering or attempting to recover any amounts properly payable by you to us may be debited to your Credit Card Account; and
- We have the right to debit any other account you may have with us for any money due by you to us in respect of your Credit Card Account.

9.3 Liability when Card is lost or stolen:

Once you have notified us that your Card has been lost or stolen, or your PIN may have been disclosed to someone else, you will not be liable after that time for any Transactions made by someone else using your lost or stolen Card.

Your liability for any loss before notifying us will not exceed a total of NZ$50 unless you have:

- Unreasonably delayed notifying us;
- Selected an unsuitable PIN such as the examples referred to in clause 2.6;
- Written your PIN on your Card or kept a written record of your PIN with or near your Card;
- Kept your PIN in a form that can readily be identified as a PIN;
- Disclosed your PIN to someone else or failed to take reasonable care to prevent others from identifying your PIN, when, for example, keying-in or using your PIN;
- Allowed someone else to use your Card or failed to reasonably safeguard your Card;
- Contributed to or caused losses from unauthorised transactions by your actions.

9.4 Extent of liability:

If any of the events in clause 9.3 apply, you will be liable for all transactions before you notified us, or for any loss which could otherwise have been prevented up to the amount you yourself would have been able to access during the time before you notified us of the loss or theft of your Card, or the disclosure of your PIN.

If these transactions cause your credit limit to be exceeded, you will be liable to pay the overlimit portion of your Credit Card Account balance without delay.

9.5 Negligent or fraudulent actions:

The limits on your liability set out in clauses 9.3 and 9.4 do not apply where you have acted negligently or fraudulently, either alone or together with any other person.

9.6 Your liability:

You will be liable for all loss, including any consequential losses suffered by third parties, if you act fraudulently, either alone or together with any other person.

You may be liable for some or all losses arising from any unauthorised access whether occurring before or after notification if you have caused or contributed to that loss. For example, by failing to comply with these Terms and Conditions.

9.7 You are not responsible for:

- Any negligent or fraudulent conduct by any of our staff or agents or parties involved in the provision of electronic banking services;
- Any incorrect charges to any of your Card Accounts when the machinery used or system involved in a Transaction is not working properly, unless you persist in using the Card Account when advised by a message or notice on display that the machinery or system is not functioning properly;
- Any unauthorised Transaction occurring either before you receive your Card or when it is clear to us that you could not have contributed to any loss you may have suffered.

9.8 Security:

Any money owing by you in respect of your Credit Card Account is secured by any present or future securities given by you (whether in conjunction with any other person(s) or not) to us.

10. OUR POSITION

- Any action taken against you in connection with the fraudulent use of your Card, except to the extent it relates to a card reported lost or stolen, during the period the card was lost or stolen;
- Any losses which arise where you have acted negligently or have acted fraudulently, either alone or together with any other person(s).

10.2 We are not liable for:

- Will not be liable for either refusing to act on contradictory instructions given in respect of your Credit Card Account or for acting on any one only of such contradictory instructions;

Without further authority or enquiry we may debit your Credit Card Account with all such claims and expenses whether or not your Credit Card Account may exceed its credit limit as a result. As a result, interest may be charged as explained in clause 7 of these Terms and Conditions.

10.4 Reasonable care and skill:

11. SUSPENDING YOUR CREDIT CARD ACCOUNT (including limiting or suspending transactions), CLOSING YOUR CREDIT CARD ACCOUNT OR CARD CANCELLATION

11.1 By us:

We may at any time suspend operation of your Credit Card Account (including, but not limited to, limiting or suspending the number, types and/or amounts of transactions we authorise on your Credit Card Account) or close any Credit Card Account. We may at any time cancel your right to use your Card and require that it be destroyed (you should cut it in half). If your Credit Card Account is cancelled, you must then immediately pay the entire balance of your Card Accounts that we have specified.

11.2 By Account Owner:

If you are an Account Owner you can apply to cancel your Card and close your Credit Card Accounts and confirm that your Card has been destroyed (it should be cut in half by you) by:

- Completing an appropriate form, which is available at any of our branches.

11.3 Closed Credit Card Account:

If a Credit Card Account is closed and/or your Card is cancelled, whether by us or you, you will still be liable for:

- Payment of the debit balance in your Credit Card Account;
- All fees and charges and any transactions undertaken up to the time that your Card is destroyed. This is so even if Transactions undertaken have not been debited due to negotiation delays by a Merchant or other parties dealt with;
- Use of the Card Number for any mail, telephone, recurring or remote transactions prior to or after the destruction of the Card;
- Any legal fees (on a solicitor/client basis), debt collection costs or other costs which we may incur in recovering amounts owing on your various Card Accounts;
- Any fees or other costs associated with any recurring transactions, or cancellation of any recurring transactions, arranged with a Merchant or another bank;
- Interest on the outstanding balance of your Card Accounts if, for any reason, a Card Account is not paid off immediately.

Note that if any Card Account is a joint account, you and any other Account Owners will continue to be jointly and individually liable for any amount owing on your Card Account. Any indemnity given to us in these Terms and Conditions will survive closure of your Credit Card Account.

11.4 Repayment in other circumstances:

The entire debit balance of your Credit Card Account becomes immediately due and payable in the event of your death or if you become bankrupt or insolvent.

11.5 Card cancellation and Reward Points:

When your Credit Card Account is closed, Reward Points will not be earned on purchases made since your most recent Credit Card Account statement.

12. ERRORS OR DISCREPANCIES

12.1 Notification of errors:

You must notify us in writing within 60 days of your Credit Card Account statement closing date if you think that:

- That statement shows an incorrect charge;
- A Transaction is incorrectly recorded;
- You have lost funds because an ATM or EFTPOS terminal is not working properly.

You are responsible for checking your statements to ensure their accuracy and advising us of any error or discrepancy even if you are away from the statement address we hold for you. If you do not write to us within this time period at the address listed at the end of these Terms and Conditions, the charge or the record of the transaction will remain.

12.2 Information required:

If you think an error or mistake has been made you need to tell us:

- Your name;
- Your Card Number and the numbers of your Credit Card Accounts you think have been affected;
- What happened, when it happened, how much you think has been lost and, if relevant, who the Merchant is or where the ATM or EFTPOS terminal is located.

12.3 How we will respond:

We will acknowledge receipt of your enquiry and advise you of the expected time that it will take to obtain the necessary information in order to respond fully to your enquiry.

12.4 Action we will take:

We will correct your Credit Card Account if we are satisfied that an ATM or EFTPOS terminal was not working properly, if we have made an error, or if the Card used was forged or faulty, or, subject to the exceptions set out in these Terms and Conditions, if the Card has been used fraudulently. If, as a result of our investigation, we believe that the charge or transaction should remain, we will write to you setting out our reasons for this conclusion. A fee may be charged for this service.

12.5 If you are not satisfied:

You should refer your complaint to the Manager Complaint Resolution, BNZ, PO Box 995, Auckland 1140, telephone 0800 788 999. If you are unhappy with our investigation, you can refer the matter to the Banking Ombudsman, PO Box 10-573, Wellington 6140, telephone +64 4 471 0006 or call 0800 805 950.

We may, in association with any Merchant, company or person, run various schemes to promote our goods and services and/or those of that other party.

You will be advised of the nature and benefits of any such promotion.

14.4 More information:

You may at any time ask us for information about your Card Accounts. This includes copies of previous statements, details of transactions, details of the current fees and charges or copies of our current Terms and Conditions. However, changes to Card Accounts may only be made by you if you are an Account Owner. We may charge a fee for these services.

14.5 Changes to these Terms and Conditions:

We may change, add to, delete or replace these Terms and Conditions from time to time by giving you at least 14 days' written notice to your last known address or by advertisement in the public notice columns of major newspapers.

14.6 Your contact details:

The Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 applies to your Credit Card Account if you established it on or after 1 April 2005. Parts 2 and 3 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 only apply to your Credit Card Account if you are an individual and, at the time you entered into this credit card agreement you do so primarily for personal, domestic or household purposes. If you established your Credit Card Account before 1 April 2005 then it will continue to be subject to the Credit Contracts 1981 unless we elect otherwise. We will notify you of any such election.

Your Card entitles the Account Owner or an additional cardholder to exclusive special offers when you purchase goods or services from the Visa Platinum Club Partners, Visa Platinum Dining Partners and Visa Entertainment Partners. The special offers provided by each Partner are described online at www.visaplatinum.com/ap and/or www.bnzplatinum.co.nz respectively. The Partners and offers are subject to change at any time without notice and your ability to use Visa Platinum Club, Visa Platinum Dining or Visa Entertainment can also be withdrawn at any time without notice. We and Visa are not responsible or liable to you in any way whatsoever in relation to any good or service provided to you by a Visa Platinum Club Partner, Visa Platinum Dining Partner or Visa Entertainment Partner or any dispute that arises between you and any such Partner in respect of the goods or services that they provide.

Your Card entitles the Account Owner or an additional cardholder to use the Visa Concierge Service, which provides assistance and support for travel, entertainment and business needs. The Concierge Service is provided by Visa, or a third party on Visa's behalf, and Concierge Service staff may at their discretion refuse to consider or deal with a Concierge Service request. The Concierge Service is subject to change at any time without notice and your ability to use the Concierge Service can also be withdrawn at any time without notice. We and Visa are not responsible or liable to you in any way whatsoever in relation to any good or service provided to you by a Concierge Service merchant or any dispute that arises between you and any Concierge Service merchant. Unless you provide us with a copy of your current certificate of exemption, we will deduct withholding tax from any interest credited or paid to you. If your IRD number has not been supplied, this deduction may have to be made at a higher rate than might otherwise apply. For non-residents we may, in our discretion, elect to pay to the Inland Revenue Department a non-resident approved issuer levy instead of deducting non-resident withholding tax. In this case, the amount of the non-resident approved issuer levy will be deducted from any interest credited or paid to you.
